

Four Basic Ingredients of a Proof

A proof should contain ingredients which answer the following four questions:

- What is being assumed?
- What is being proved?
- What are the tools that are being used?
- Why is it legitimate to use those tools?

Sometimes the presence of these ingredients in a proof is implicit. But, it should always be easy to identify them.